

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Xiao Cheng, individually and on behalf all other employees similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

- against -

SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse, Cheung Wah Lam, Bobby Lam, Defendants.

Case No.

COLLECTIVE AND CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Xiao Cheng (“Cheng”) on his own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through his undersigned attorneys, Hang & Associates, PLLC, hereby files this complaint against the Defendants SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse, Cheung Wah Lam, Bobby Lam, (collectively “Defendants”), alleges and shows the Court the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action brought by Plaintiff on his own behalf and on behalf of similarly situated employees, alleging violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”) and the New York Labor Law, arising from Defendants’ various willful and unlawful employment policies, patterns and/or practices.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendants have willfully and intentionally committed widespread violations of the FLSA and NYLL by engaging in a pattern and practice of failing to pay their employees, including Plaintiff, overtime compensation for all hours worked over forty (40) each workweek and the spread of hours premium.

3. Plaintiff alleges pursuant to the FLSA, that he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid overtime wages, (2) liquidated damages, (3) prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and (4) attorneys' fees and costs.

4. Plaintiff further alleges pursuant to New York Labor Law § 650 et seq. and 12 New York Codes, Rules and Regulations §§ 146 ("NYCRR") that he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid overtime compensation, (2) unpaid "spread of hours" premium for each day they worked ten (10) or more hours, (3) compensation for failure to provide wage notice at the time of hiring and failure to provide paystubs in violation of the NYLL (4) liquidated damages equal to the sum of unpaid "spread of hours" premium and unpaid overtime pursuant to the NY Wage Theft Prevention Act; (5) prejudgment and post-judgment interest; and (6) attorney's fees and costs.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This Court has original federal question jurisdiction over this controversy under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and has supplemental jurisdiction over the New York Labor Law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a).

6. Venue is proper in the Eastern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c), because Defendants conduct business in this District, and the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

PLAINTIFF

7. Plaintiff Xiao Cheng is a resident of New York City and was employed as a hibachi chef by SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse located at 2548 Nesconset Hwy, Stony Brook, New York 11790 from April 26, 2014 to July 31, 2016.

CORPORATE DEFENDANT

8. Upon information and belief, Defendant, SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse, is a domestic business corporation organization and existing under the laws of the State of New York and maintaining its principal place of business at 2548 Nesconset Hwy, Stony Brook, New York 11790.

9. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Corporate Defendants, were a business or enterprise engaged in interstate commerce employing more than two (2) employees and earning gross annual sales over Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000).

10. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times hereto, Defendants have been and continue to be “employers” engaged in interstate “commerce” and/or in the production of “goods” for “commerce”, within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C § 203.

11. Corporate Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C § 203(r).

12. Corporate Defendants have been Plaintiff’s employers within the meaning of the New York State Labor Law (“NYLL”) § 2, 190, and 651.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS

13. Upon information and belief, Defendant Cheung Wah Lam is the owner, officer, director and/or managing agent of SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse at 2548 Nesconset Hwy, Stony Brook, New York 11790 and participated in the day-to-day operations of Kumo Japanese Steakhouse and acted intentionally and maliciously and is an employer pursuant to FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203d, and regulations promulgated thereunder, 29 C.F.R. § 791.2, NYLL § 2 and the regulations thereunder, and is jointly and severally liable with SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse.

14. Upon information and belief, Defendant Cheung Wah Lam owns the stock of SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse and manages and makes all business decisions including but not limited to the amount in salary the employee will receive and the number of hours employees will work. (See Exhibit 2).

15. Upon information and belief, Defendant Bobby Lam, is the owner, officer, director and/or managing agent of SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse at 2548 Nesconset Hwy, Stony Brook, New York 11790 and participated in the day-to-day operations of Kumo Japanese Steakhouse and acted intentionally and maliciously and is an employer pursuant to FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203d, and regulations promulgated thereunder, 29 C.F.R. § 791.2, NYLL § 2 and the regulations thereunder, and is jointly and severally liable with SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse.

16. Upon information and belief, Defendant Bobby Lam owns the stock of SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse and manages and makes all business decisions including but not limited to the amount in salary the employee will receive and the number of hours employees will work. (See Exhibit 2).

17. At all times relevant herein, SBKU Services Inc. d/b/a Kumo Japanese Steakhouse was, and continues to be, an “enterprise engaged in commerce” within the meaning of FLSA.

18. At all relevant times, Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff his lawfully earned overtime compensation and spread-of-hour premiums, and failed to provide him a wage notice at the time of hiring in violation of the NYLL.

19. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to the institution of this action and/or conditions have been waived.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

20. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

21. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime pay, spread of hours pay, failure to provide the required wage notice at the time of hiring would injure Plaintiff and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

Plaintiff Xiao Cheng

22. From April 26, 2014 to July 31, 2016 Plaintiff was hired by Defendants to work as a hibachi chef for Defendants' restaurant located at 2548 Nesconset Hwy, Stony Brook, New York 11790.

23. During this period, Plaintiff's had an alternating schedule, when scheduled to work 6 days a week Plaintiff worked three days among Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 11:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. then again from 4:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m., Friday from 11:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. then again from 4:30 p.m. until 11:00 p.m., Saturday from 12:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m., and Sunday from 12:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. However, at least two times a week, Plaintiff worked until 2:45pm in the afternoon before they took a break and at least two times a week, Plaintiff worked until 9:15 pm in the evening. With this this schedule. Plaintiff worked at least Fifty-Five point Five (55.5) hours a week.

24. When scheduled to work 5 days a week Plaintiff worked two days among Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from y from 11:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. then again from 4:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m., Friday from 11:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. then again from 4:30 p.m. until 11:00 p.m., Saturday from 12:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m., and Sunday from 12:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. However, at least two times a week, Plaintiff worked until 2:45pm in the afternoon before they took a break and at least two times a week, Plaintiff worked until 9:15pm in the evening. With this schedule, Plaintiff worked at least Forty-Seven (47) hours a week.

25. Saturday and Sunday Plaintiff was not provided any breaks. Plaintiff would regularly work past his scheduled time in the event he was still in mid-cooking for guests.

26. Regardless of Plaintiff's hours worked, he was paid a bi-weekly rate of 1,100. Plaintiff was paid in cash and check.

27. Plaintiff was not required to utilize any means of recording or verifying his hours worked (e.g. punch clock, sign-in sheet, fingerprint or ID scanner).

28. Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff for overtime compensation according to state and federal laws.

29. Plaintiff was not compensated for New York's "spread of hours" premium for shifts that exceed ten (10) hours.

30. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with a wage notices at the time of his hiring

31. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

32. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime and the "spread of hours" premium would economically injure Plaintiff and the Class Members by their violation of federal and state laws.

33. While employed by Defendants, Plaintiff was not exempt under federal and state laws requiring employers to pay employees overtime.

34. Plaintiff and the New York Class Members' workdays frequently lasted longer than 10 hours.

35. Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and other Class members' New York's "spread of hours" premium for every day in which they worked over 10 hours.

36. Defendants failed to keep full and accurate records of Plaintiff's hours and wages.

37. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and other Class members with written notices about the terms and conditions of their employment upon hire in relation to their rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime pay. These notices were similarly not provided upon Plaintiff and other Class members' pay increase(s).

38. Defendants committed the foregoing acts against the Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective Plaintiff.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

39. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

40. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State "spread of hours" premium to Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

41. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the "Collective Action Period") and whom failed to receive spread-of-hours pay and overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the "Collective Action Members"), and have been subject to the same common decision, policy, and plan to not provide required wage notices at the time of hiring, in contravention to federal and state labor laws.

42. Upon information and belief, the Collection Action Members are so numerous the joinder of all members is impracticable. The identity and precise number of such persons are unknown, and the facts upon which the calculations of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants. Upon information and belief, there are more than ten (10) Collective Action members, who have worked for or have continued to work for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not likely file individual suits because they fear retaliation, lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiff submits that this case should be certified as a collection action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

43. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members, and have retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the field of employment law and class action litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

44. This action should be certified as collective action because the prosecution of separate action by individual members of the collective action would risk creating either inconsistent or varying adjudication with respect to individual members of this class that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interest of the other members not party to the adjudication, or subsequently impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

45. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as collective action.

46. Questions of law and fact common to members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the questions of fact common to Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Collective Action members within the meaning of the FLSA;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members overtime wages for all hours worked above forty (40) each workweek in violation of the FLSA and the regulation promulgated thereunder;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Collective Action Members spread of hours payment for each day an employee worked over 10 hours;
- e. Whether the Defendants failed to provide the Collective Action Members with a wage notice at the time of hiring as required by the NYLL;
- f. Whether the Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that terms is used within the context of the FLSA; and,
- g. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, punitive, and statutory damages, interest, costs and disbursements and attorneys' fees.

47. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

48. Plaintiff and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by Defendants' unlawful conduct.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

49. Plaintiff sues on his own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rules 23(a), (b)(2) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

50. Plaintiff brings this New York Labor Law claims on behalf of all persons who were employed by Defendants at any time since June 2011 to the entry of judgment in this case (the "Class Period") who were non-exempt employees within the meaning of the New York Labor Law and have not been paid overtime wages in violation of the New York Labor Law (the "Class").

51. The persons in the Class identified above are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts on which the calculation of that number are presently within the sole control of the Defendants, upon information and belief, there are in excess of fifteen (15) members of the Class during the Class Period.

52. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class, and a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy--particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual Plaintiffs lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against corporate Defendants.

53. The Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole.

54. Plaintiff has committed himself to pursuing this action and he has retained competent counsel experienced in employment law and class action litigation.

55. Plaintiff has the same interests in this matter as all other members of the class and Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Class.

56. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominate over any questions solely affecting the individual members of the Class, including but not limited to:

- a. whether the Defendants employed the Plaintiff and Class within the meaning of the New York Labor Law;
- b. whether the Defendants failed to keep true and accurate time records for all hours worked by Plaintiff and the members of the Class;
- c. what proof of hours worked is sufficient where the employer fails in its duty to maintain time records;
- d. whether Defendants failed to pay the Class wages for all hours worked as well as overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of forty hours per workweek, in violation of the NYLL and the regulations promulgated thereunder;
- e. whether Defendants' violations of the NYLL are willful as that term is used within the context of the NYLL;
- f. whether Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, punitive and statutory damages, interest, costs and disbursements and attorneys' fees;
- g. whether Defendants should be enjoined from such violations of the NYLL in the future;
- h. whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the members of the Class an additional hour of pay for each hour worked in excess of ten hours in one

- day and an additional hour of pay for each split worked in a day;
- i. whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with written notices of their rates of pay, the regular pay day, the name of the employer, any “doing business as” names used by the employer and other information and disclosures as required by New York Labor Law, §195(1)(a); and
 - j. whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with written statements of their wages, listing the dates of work covered by the payment of wages, the rate of pay and the basis thereof as required by New York Labor Law, § 195(3).

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

COUNT I

[Violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act—Overtime Wage Brought on behalf of the Plaintiffs and the FLSA Collective]

57. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

58. The FLSA provides that no employer engaged in commerce shall employ a covered employee for a work week longer than forty (40) hours unless such employee receives compensation for employment in excess of forty (40) hours at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he or she is employed, or one and one-half times the minimum wage, whichever is greater. 29 USC § 207(a).

59. The FLSA provides that any employer who violates the provisions of 29 U.S.C. § 207 shall be liable to the employees affected in the amount of their unpaid overtime compensation, and in an additional equal amount as liquidated damages. 29 USC § 216(b).

60. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective their overtime pay violated the FLSA.

61. At all relevant times, Defendants had, and continue to have, a policy of practice of refusing to pay overtime compensation at the statutory rate of time and a half to Plaintiff and Collective Action Members for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, which violated and continues to violate the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq., including 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(a)(1) and 215(a).

62. The FLSA and supporting regulations required employers to notify employees of employment law requires employers to notify employment law requirements. 29 C.F.R. § 516.4.

63. Defendants willfully failed to notify Plaintiff and FLSA Collective of the requirements of the employment laws in order to facilitate their exploitation of Plaintiff's and FLSA Collectives' labor.

64. Defendants knowingly and willfully disregarded the provisions of the FLSA as evidenced by their failure to compensate Plaintiff and Collective Class Members the statutory overtime rate of time and one half for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) per week when they knew or should have known such was due and that failing to do so would financially injure Plaintiff and Collective Action members.

COUNT II
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Overtime Pay]

65. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

66. Pursuant to the New York Wage Theft Prevention Act, an employer who fails to pay proper overtime compensation shall be liable, in addition to the amount of any underpayments, for liquidated damages equal to the total of such under-payments found to be due the employee.

67. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class their overtime pay violated the NYLL.

68. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class was not in good faith.

COUNT III
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Spread of Time Pay]

69. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

70. The NYLL requires employers to pay an extra hour's pay for every day that an employee works an interval in excess of ten hours pursuant to NYLL §§ 190, et seq., and §§ 650, et seq., and New York State Department of Labor regulations § 146-1.6.

71. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Rule 23 Class spread-of-hours pay was not in good faith.

COUNT IV
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Time of Hire Wage Notice Requirement]

72. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

73. The Defendants failed to furnish to the Plaintiff at the time of hiring a notice containing the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer in accordance with section one hundred ninety-one of this article; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law; in violation of the NYLL, § 195(1).

74. Due to the Defendants’ violation of the NYLL, § 195(1) each Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, $50 for each workday that the violation occurred or continued to occur, up to $5,000, together with costs and attorneys’ fees pursuant to New York Labor Law. N.Y. Lab. Law § 198(1-b).

COUNT V
[Violation of New York Labor Law—New York Pay Stub Requirement]

75. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

76. The NYLL and supporting regulations require employers to provide detailed paystub information to employees every payday. NYLL § 195-1(d).

77. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the New York Labor Law with respect to compensation of each Plaintiff, and did not provide the pay stub on or after each Plaintiff’s payday.

78. Due to Defendants’ violations of New York Labor Law, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, $250 for each workday of the violation, up to $5,000 for Plaintiff to get her with costs and attorneys’ fees pursuant to New York Labor Law N.Y. Lab. Law § 198(1-d).

COUNT VI
[Civil Damages for Deceptive Acts and Practices — Violations of New York General Business Law § 349 Brought on Behalf of the Plaintiff]

79. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

80. NY General Business Law § 349 provides that if any person willfully files a fraudulent information return with respect to payments purported to be made to any other person, such other person may bring a civil action for damages against the person so filing such a return.

81. Due to Defendants' violations of NY GBS Law § 349, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, his actual damages or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is greater, or both such actions.

82. Plaintiff demands the right to examine, in person or by attorney, the minutes of the proceedings of shareholders and records of shareholders of Defendant Corporation to recover wages owed as employees of the corporation (See Exhibit 3).

COUNT VII
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Frequency of Payments]

83. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

84. Plaintiff were manual workers as defined by the New York Labor Law.

85. Defendants were required to pay the Plaintiffs on a weekly basis, and no later than seven (7) days after the end of the workweek in which the wages were earned.

86. Defendants paid Plaintiffs bi-weekly.

87. Plaintiffs are entitled to statutory damages equal to the total of the delayed wages.

Prayer For Relief

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the FLSA collective plaintiffs, respectfully requests that this court enter a judgment providing the following relief:

- a) Authorizing plaintiff at the earliest possible time to give notice of this collective action, or that the court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have been employed by defendants as non-exempt tipped or non-tipped employees. Such notice shall inform them that the civil notice has been filed, of the nature of the action, of their right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied proper hourly compensation and premium overtime wages;
- b) Certification of this case as a collective action pursuant to FLSA;
- c) Issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all similarly situated members of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and appointing Plaintiffs and his counsel to represent the Collective Action Members;
- d) Certification of this case as a class action pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;
- e) Designation of Plaintiffs as representatives of the Rule 23 Class, and counsel of record as Class counsel;
- f) A declaratory judgment that the practices complained of herein are unlawful under FLSA and New York Labor Law;
- g) An injunction against Kumo Japanese Steakhouse, its officers, agents, successors, employees, representatives and any and all persons acting in concert with them as provided by law, from engaging in each of unlawful practices and policies set forth herein;
- h) An award of unpaid overtime wages due under FLSA and New York Labor Law plus compensatory and liquidated damages in the amount of twenty five percent under NYLL

§ 190 et seq., § 650 et seq., and one hundred percent after June 26, 2009 under NY Wage Theft Prevention Act, and interest;

- i) An award of unpaid “spread of hours” premium due under the New York Labor Law;
- j) An award of statutory damages equal to the total amount of delayed wages
- k) An award of damages for Defendants’ failure to provide wage notice at the time of hiring as required under the New York Labor Law.
- l) An award of liquidated and/or punitive damages as a result of Defendants’ knowing and willful failure to pay wages, minimum wages and overtime compensation pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216;
- m) An award of liquidated and/or punitive damages as a result of Defendants’ willful failure to pay overtime compensation, and “spread of hours” premium pursuant to New York Labor Law;
- n) An award of costs and expenses of this action together with reasonable attorneys’ and expert fees pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and NYLL §§ 198 and 663;
- o) The cost and disbursements of this action;
- p) An award of prejudgment and post-judgment fees;
- q) Providing that if any amounts remain unpaid upon the expiration of ninety days following the issuance of judgment, or ninety days after expiration of the time to appeal and no appeal is then pending, whichever is later, the total amount of judgment shall automatically increase by fifteen percent, as required by NYLL § 198(4); and
- r) Such other and further legal and equitable relief as this Court deems necessary, just, and proper.
